Memorials To Be Dedicated For Bicyclists

On Saturday, October 18, permanent memorials will be dedicated to Kristy Gough and Matt Peterson, two bicyclists who were tragically killed in the foothills of Cupertino. Please join us for this brief ceremony as we honor the memory of our friends and family who have passed.

The morning's events will begin at 7:45 am with a gathering at Cupertino Civic Center, 10350 Torre Avenue in Cupertino. Light refreshments and coffee will be provided. At 8:15 am guests will cycle up McClellan Road to Stevens Canyon Road, and gather at the entrance to Stevens Creek Park, near the site of the accident. At 9 am there will be a brief ceremony and an unveiling of the plaques and ghost bike. Members of the Gough and Peterson families will be present.

Members of the media wishing vehicle access to the site of the ceremony should be sure to arrive at the Stevens Canyon Road location no later than 8:15 am. The road will be closed to ALL automobile traffic once the bicyclists get underway. Stevens Canyon Road will reopen to vehicle traffic by 10 am.
